Summary of Experience

Lennart Grut is the Director in Charge of managing the practice's key projects in Europe and Asia. His role includes organising and managing multidisciplinary teams in multilingual environments to ensure delivery of projects within a wide variety of cost and time constraints, while always respecting the exacting quality standards set by the practice.

He has particular expertise in the planning and design of major airport projects and has been Director in Charge of both Terminal 5 Heathrow Airport, London and Terminal 4, Barajas Airport, Madrid, winner of the 2006 Stirling Prize. More recently he has been leading urban renewal projects in Europe and the UK, as well as the practice's involvement in the USA. In addition Lennart oversees the Digital Design, IT and Communications departments.
