Summary of Experience

Lennart Grut is the partner in charge of managing the practice's key projects in Europe and Asia. His role includes organising and managing multidisciplinary teams in multilingual environments to ensure delivery of projects within a wide variety of cost and time constraints, while always respecting the exacting quality standards set by the practice.

He has particular expertise in the planning and design of major airport projects and has been director in charge of both Terminal 5 Heathrow Airport, London and Terminal 4, Barajas Airport, Madrid, winner of the 2006 Stirling Prize. More recently he has been involved in setting up the practice's new work in Mexico, Lebanon and China as well helping maintain a continued presence in Europe, in particular Italy and France. In addition, Lennart oversees the digital design and IT departments.
