Summary of Experience

Avtar is the Managing Director of Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners Australia and is currently working with a multidisciplinary team to design five new Metro stations on the Metro Tunnel Project in Melbourne. Previously he led the RSHP team of architects based in Sydney in the design and construction of the Barangaroo South Project - the largest single development in Australia. Avtar also holds the role of an Associate Partner at Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners, London. He has worked with the practice for 32 years with a focus on design excellence and delivery.

As an Associate Partner, Avtar was in charge of One Hyde Park, a luxury residential development on London's Knightsbridge. He was also responsible for the Law Courts in Antwerp, the associated Nieu Zuid Masterplan and the Bolivarplaats projects in Antwerp, and the new headquarters of Lloyds Register in the City of London. In addition, he has played a key role in a diverse range of projects and competitions, including the renovation of Old Billingsgate Fish Market in London, the design of Channel 4 Headquarters in London, Strasbourg Court of Human Rights and Terminals at London Heathrow and Madrid Barajas airports.

Avtar has experience of every project phase from competition design, urban-planning, concept design through to detail design, construction and contract administration, as well as client liaison, material & energy technologies and sustainable design.

In addition, Avtar is a director of the Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners Charitable Foundation and sits on the Council of Management of the Foundation. The practice is entirely owned by the charity, which in turn receives an annual dividend from the practice and distributes this for charitable purposes at the direction of the employees of the practice.
